Elder Financial Protection Network
550 Montgomery Street, Ste. 485
San Francisco, CA 94111

Dear Ms. Duane:

I would like to commend the Elder Financial Protection Network (EFPN) for continuing to support those of us in law enforcement who are being confronted daily with efforts to financially victimize the elders in our communities. The EFPN's mission is to prevent financial abuse of elders through local-based partnerships that raise public awareness. With public awareness it becomes more difficult to target these victims. Coupled with community outreach and training, investigative and prosecutorial inroads can be and are being achieved to hold those who target the elderly accountable.

This office strongly supports the goals of EFPN and would encourage others to join with the increasing number of businesses, law enforcement agencies and community-based organizations that share the vision of protecting these venerable residents.

I wish to personally thank you and the EFPN's Board of Directors for its achievements. Please keep up the good work.

Very truly yours,

Edward Berberian
District Attorney
